You also get access to a well-defined business model, holistic support, and a legacy of trust. From infrastructure to teacher recruitment, from complete guidance on teaching aids and curriculum to marketing guidance, you can expect extensive mentoring and support from Doon Edutech.

We create the perfect support system to help you establish a world class institution in your city/ town. We provide extensive support to start the new school and help ensure that everything is in order, so that you may begin your journey smoothly and successfully towards enriching young minds and building the future of the country.

Doon Edutech has set up school franchises across the country and is a name to reckon with as our schools are trendsetters for providing quality education. Every initiative we take for our schools in terms of advancement or innovation is done keeping our student's welfare in mind which has helped us become one of the top school franchisors in the country. Our schools foster an enriching educational experience for more than 10,000 students across India and our schools are known for being pioneers due to the number of firsts being introduced by us.

Doon International Schools are equipped with the latest educational aids, infrastructure and amenities and are thus known to maintain the highest standards in the field of school education.

What We Offer?

We provide a wide range of continuous support services such as architectural briefings, shortlisting and hiring employees for you, marketing guidance, training support, curriculum support, branch setup support, IT support, support for savings on purchases etc.

DIS FRANCHISE ADVANTAGES: • India's leading school brand • Decades of proven success • Franchises managed by highly qualified & most experienced management team • World acclaimed system of education based on years of R & D • Unique thematic curriculum • Multimedia and internet based teaching • Use of innovative techniques • Colourful, chirpy & air-conditioned classrooms • Brand legacy & quality assurance • Reasonable franchise fee & royalty • No recurring renewal charges, no hidden costs • 100% focus on running day and boarding schools • Sense of ownership as each branch has its own individual identity • Goodwill among the parents, media and larger community

We would be in the position to make an informed decision within 10 days of receiving your complete details. Initially for most cities, we shall be only granting license to one school per district on a first come first served basis.

After the agreement is signed and after getting the government approvals, you should expect a 12-24 months' time frame for the opening of your school. The pace is up to you and depends upon how quickly you are able to start construction.

However, we encourage you to take your time and apply your best efforts in evaluating this important investment decision. Rest assured, if you qualify and are awarded a franchise location by Doon Edutech, then we would support you at every step of the way from providing you the curriculum, activities, vendor contacts, to guiding you on site development, to training and marketing guidance etc.
